

9:00	Registration opens
	Venue: Michał Bobrzyński's Room, Collegium Maius, Jagiellońska 15
9:30	Opening
	Venue: Michał Bobrzyński Room, Collegium Maius Jagiellońska 15
9:35-10:15	Keynote's Session
	1. Kamila Szczepanska (Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Germany)
	The Response of Japanese NGO Community to Securitisation of Japanese ODA
	2. Hiroaki Richard Watanabe (The University of Sheffield, UK)
	Japan's pursuit of the Trans-Pacific Partnership after the US withdrawal
	Venue: Michał Bobrzyński Room, Collegium Maius Jagiellońska 15
Venue of Session	Michał Bobrzyński Room, Collegium Maius Jagiellońska 15	Casimir the Great Room, Collegium Maius Jagiellońska 15	Institute of Political Science and International Relations, Jabłonowskich 5
10:15-11:30	Session 1 Historical Perspective of Security Issues Chair: Olga Barbasiewicz 1. Shingo Masunaga (Finland) The Lessons of the Interwar Japanese Military Intelligence in the Baltic States: 1931-1940 2. Zofia Kurzawińska (Poland) Japonization of Okinawa as presented in childhood memories of Iha Fuyū 3. Jan Talaga (Poland) The Chinese Criminal Code - a local relict or an international model? 4. Barbara Abraham (Australia) Studying form the Past. Security issues and Shanghai Ghetto during the Second World War	Session 2 South and Southeast Asia Chair: Maciej Pletnia 1. Monika Piosik (Poland) Anti-Communist propaganda and pre-election game in contemporary Indonesia 2. Joanna Wardęga (Poland) Surviving between two giants: security dilemmas facing Bhutan 3. Ramachandra Byrappa (Hungary) The melting of South Asia's frontier zone and its consequences
11:45-12:45	Lunch Break (Chimera Restaurant: Sw. Anny street, 3; additional information available at: http://chimera.com.pl/)

12:45-14:00	Session 3 China Chair: Ewa Trojnar 1. Zsolt Horváth (Hungary) The Changing Picture of China 2. Kamila Stasiak (Poland) The concept of harmonious society in the context of China's cultural security 2. Sławomir Gromadzki (Poland) Arctic China's policy, new challenges in the context of climate change 3. Konrad Majka (Poland) Chinese nationalism as a challenge for security of Southeast Asia	Session 4 India Chair: Maciej Pletnia 1. Anna Lelenkova (Russia) Japan-India Strategic Partnership: it's Impact on the Security System in the AsiaPacific Region in the XXI century. 2. Antonina Łuszczykiewicz (Poland) China-India Border Conflict: Prospects for War and Peace in the 21st Century 3. Adam Róma (Hungary) Sino-Indian standoff on the Doklam plateau 3. Agnieszka Kuszewska (Poland) Religious majoritarian nationalism in India and Pakistan and its impact on bilateral relations	Session 5 South China Sea Chair: Marcin Grabowski 1. Adam Stempler (Hungary) The South China Sea Dispute between China and The Philippines 2. Victoria Herczegh (Hungary) Hot Spots - The South China Sea disputes viewed from a legal aspect 3. Piotr Andrzej Głogowski (Poland) The situation on the South China Sea as an analogy to the Thucydides Trap 4. Paweł Behrendt (Austria) The meaning of sea lines of communication for regional security in East Asia
14:00-15:15	Session 6 Korean Peninsula Chair: Olga Barbasiewicz 1. Marcelli Burdelski (Poland) Security dilemma and American - North Korean confrontation on the Korean Peninsula 2. Mateusz Danielewski (Poland) Russia's foreign policy toward the Democratic People's Republic of Korea 3. Krzysztof Kozłowski (Poland) Post-Cold War North Korea – People's Republic of China Relations in Games Theory Perspective 4. Michał Dahl (Poland) Singapore – North Korea Relations Towards Pyongyang's 2017 Nuclear Tests	Session 7 Asia-Pacific Chair: Maciej Pletnia 1. Ewa Trojnar (Poland) Taiwan's options in the context of security dilemma in the Asia-Pacific region 2. Jakub Przetacznik (Belgium) Asia-Pacific security - Australia's perspective 3. Marcin Hubicki (Poland) Are US and China heading course on warpath? Comparison of Graham Allison's Thucydides trap theory with views of other experts on US-China relations 4. Anna Kostka (Poland) Influence of the Sino-Japanese Territorial Dispute on Bilateral Public Diplomacy and Soft Power Policies	Session 8 Central Asia and Middle East Chair: Karolina Rak 1. Mehmet Sadik Bektas (Poland) The West's View of the Democracy in the Middle East: Ideological Objectivism from Weber to Fukuyama 2. Arkadiusz Legieć (Poland) Foreign Fighters from Central Asia - "Blackwater of (not only) jihad" 3. Marzena Araźna (Poland) Israel's Asia Strategy 4. Marcell György Pintér (Hungary) China in the MENA Region
15:15-15:45	Coffee Break

Venue of Session	Michał Bobrzyński Room, Collegium Maius Jagiellońska 15	Casimir the Great Room, Collegium Maius Jagiellońska 15
15:45-17:00	Session 9 Northeast Asia Chair: Maciej Pletnia <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Roland Nikolaus Löchli (Thailand) The Chinese-Japanese Security Dilemma: Competing Visions of International Order Jakub Ali Farhan (Poland) "Century of humiliation" and it's influence on modern Chinese politics with especial emphasis on China-Japan relations Marcin Grabowski (Poland) Sino-American-Japanese Triangle as a Security Determinant in Northeast Asia Agata Stasiak (Poland) North Korea and Japan: influence on Japan's politics and minorities 	Session 10 Japan Chair: Olga Barbasiewicz <ol style="list-style-type: none"> András Bartók (Hungary) An Ageing Demography and Foreign and Security Policy: A Case Study of Japan Nanum Jeon (Japan) The Development of Japan's Immigration Control Policy since the Mid-2000s Beata Bochorodycz (Poland) Invented Trauma and Japan's War on Terrorism under Koizumi Peter Bobak (Hungary) 'Normalization' of Japanese Defense Policy
17:00-18:15	Session 11 Politics of Memory Chair: Kamila Szczepanska <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Olga Barbasiewicz (Poland) Security Dilemma or History Dilemma? Japanese-Korean Relations in the 21st century Maciej Pletnia (Poland) "Reactive state": question of agency regarding historical issues between Japan, China and South Korea Teruji Suzuki (Japan) Japan's relations with South Korea and China Robert Zajac (Poland) Territorial dispute of Dokdo/Takeshima in the eyes of realism 	Session 12 Security and Economy Chair: Ewa Trojnar <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Attila Endre Simay (Hungary) Foreign trade as an economic (inter)dependence in Asia Adrian Brona (Poland) Development of Belt and Road Initiative: Security Challenges in South Asia Dóra Günsberger (UK) Assessing the Implementation of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) from a Security Perspective: Internal and External Challenges Igor Szpotakowski (Poland) One Belt, One Road, One Space - the legal challenges and security dilemmas of the
18:20	Closing Remarks Venue: Michał Bobrzyński Room, Collegium Maius Jagiellońska 15

